Team Contest Problem

While traveling in South Africa, one tourist was faced with a need to fill in a certain document in Northern Sotho. Even though he did not know a word of that language, he easily figured out what this meant:

Nomoro ya phaspoto: ('passport number')

Aterese ya emeile: ('email address')

But he did not know what this meant:

Leina, sefane:

Naga:

Letšatšikgvedi la matswalo:

Bong:

Batswadi:

Mma:

Tate:

Bana:

Mmala wa mahlo:

Unfortunately, no interpreter was available, just a monolingual dictionary of Northern Sotho. Here is what the tourist found there:

mma	motswadi wa ka wa mosadi, yo a mpelegetso
tate	monna yo a ntswetšego bong	sepharologanyi seo se šupago gore motho goba phoofolo ke monna goba mosadi matswalo	letšatši le kgvedi tšeo motho a belegilwego ka tšona naga	lefase leo le arotšwego la go ba le batho ba bantši, leo le nago le mmušo wo o lego ka fase ga taolo ya presitente le bathuši ba gagwe; naga e šomiša tšhelete ya go fapana le ya dinaga tše dingwe
mmala	ponagalo ya selo yeo gantši e ka tšwelelago gabotse ge e le mosegare ka lebaka la mahlasedi a letšatši, selo seo se ka bonagala e le se se hubedu, tala, tšhweu bjalobjalo mahlo	dikgokolwana tše pedi tša bošweu le boso tšeo di lego sefahlegong ka godimo ga nko, di šoma go lebelela le go bona

At first, this did not help much. But, leafing through the dictionary for a while, the tourist read some more dictionary entries:

Basotho	batho ba Afrika Borwa bao setlogong sa bona ba tšwago nageng ya Lesotho, bao ba bolelago Sesotho sa Borwa bjalo ka polelo yeo ba e antšego letsweleng beke	lebaka la go bopša ke matšatši a šupago bona	go diriša mahlo go lebelela
iri	lebaka la nako la go bopša ke metsotso ye masometshela kgwedi	lebaka le le bopšago ke dibeke tše nne go iša go tše hlano leina	lentšu goba sehlopha sa mantšu seo se fiwago le go relwa motho gomme a bitšwa ka lona lekgolo	nomoro ye kgolo ya go bopša ke masome a lesome lesome	nomoro ye nnyane ye e fetago senyane, ya go bopša ke ge go hlakanywa senyane le tee letšatši	1. lebaka la nako la go bopša ke diiri tše masomepedinne 2. polanete ye kgolokgolo ya nkgokolo ya mahlasedi a phišo ye ntši selemo, yeo e rotogago bohlabela mesong ya phatša leratadima go ya bodikela, ge e se gona e ba leswiswi metsotso	lebaka la nako la go bopša ke metsotswana ye masometshela monna	motho wa bong bja botona monwana	setho sa mmele seo se lego seatleng goba leotong, sa dinokonoko sa go otlogoga, gantši se šoma go swara morwa	ngwana wa mošemane morwedi	ngwana wa mosetsana mosadi	motho wa bong bja botshadi mošemane	ngwana wa bong bja botona mosetsana	ngwana wa bong bja botshadi motswadi	mosadi goba monna yo a nago le ngwana goba bana ngwaga	lebaka la dikgwedi tše lesomepedi ngwedi	selo sa nkgokolo seo se bonagalago bošego leratadimeng seo se tlišago seedi se segolo lefaseng, se hlatha mabaka a kgwedi nkgokolo	sebopego sa go raretša seo se swanago le kgwele ya maoto, kenywa ya tamati, namune, bjalobjalo nne	nomoro ye nnyane ye e fetago tharo, ya go bopša ke ge go hlakanywa tharo le tee pedi	nomoro ye nnyane ye e fetago tee, ya go bopša ke ge go hlakanywa tee le tee seatla	setho sa mmele seo se lego mafelelong a letsogo sa mphaphathi sa menwana, se šoma go swara sefane	leina le tee leo maloko ka moka a lapa a le šomišago šupa	1. go emišetša letsogo pejana mola monwana o lebile pele ka nepo ya gore motho a bone seo se nepiwago goba seo go bolelwago ka sona 2. nomoro ye nnyane ye e fetago tshela, ya go bopša ke ge go hlakanywa tshela le tee tšhelete	silibera le koporo tša nkgokolo goba pampiri yeo e ngwadilwego ya khutlonne, yeo e šomišwago go reka dilo, yeo e lego bohlokwa kudu ekonoming ya naga

After that, he could fill in everything.

Then the tourist became interested in the Northern Sotho language and found out he could now understand more definitions:

koko	BONA makgolo , rakgolo makgolo	mmagotate goba mmagomma rakgolo	tatagotate goba tatagomma setlogolo	ngwana wa ngwanake kgaetšedi	ngwana wa batswadi ba ka wa mosetsana goba wa mosadi moratho	ngwana wa mmago, e ka ba wa mosetsana goba mošemane

- (a) After the tourist filled in everything, the official who took his documents told him something like “Šupa ka monwana šupa”. At first the tourist did not know what he was supposed to do. But when they showed him, the tourist understood the connection between the two meanings of the word šupa. Explain what the connection is.
- (b) How is tharo defined in this dictionary?
- (c) What can you say about the origin of the word lekgolo?
- (d) Construct a bilingual Northern Sotho–English dictionary and a Northern Sotho grammar, as comprehensive as possible from the data of this team assignment.

⚠ The Northern Sotho language belongs to the Bantu sub-branch of the Niger-Congo family. It is one of 11 official languages of the Republic of South Africa, where approx. 4.6 million people use it as their first language.
